

Name

PRODUCT ANALYSIS:

What are the main sustainability issues?

There are four main sustainability areas that designers and makers need to balance when developing products.

Using the sustainability question sheets or your own ideas, identify the most appropriate Cultural, Economic, Environmental and Social questions for the product you are analysing.

List the questions in the areas below and try to answer them.

